THE WAR.

AUSTRIA AND SERVA.

Reuter's
[Service to the "Telegraph."]
London, November 26.
A sheet of mobilisation dementis has been issued in Vienna, St. Petersburg, and Berlin. They all concur in expressing the opinion that a solution of the Austro-Servian differences will be found in conjunction with other questions when the war is ended. The suggestion that Germany should mediate between Austria and Russia is scouted.

WIDESPREAD APPREHENSION.

Contrary to the official optimism on the Continent, the public in Austria, Russia and Germany are apprehensive, fearing that the arrival of the Servians at Darazzo will precipitate action. The other danger point is the question of the Austrian consuls in Macedonia. It is asserted in Vienna that the Servians are preventing the representative of the Austrian Foreign Office from reaching the Austrian Consul at Prizrend and have even declared that the latter has been killed.

THE STUMBLING-BLOCK.

A Constantinople message reports that the truce will last for forty-eight hours. Official circles are pessimistic as to the outcome of the negotiations. The question of Adrianople is likely to prove the stumbling block. The Bulgarians are prepared to waive the evacuation of Chataldja, but insist upon the capitulation of Adrianople. The Turks are equally determined to retain Adrianople.

The attitude of Austria towards Serbia is encouraging the Turks. Austrian subjects in Constantinople belonging to the four classes of Reserves have been recruited, and the Red Cross unit has been ordered to return to Vienna.

ADVICE TO TURKEY

The Ambassadors yesterday urged the Porte to conclude peace in view of the danger of complications arising.

WAR NEWS.

The Greeks have occupied Chios.

A message from Sofia reports that the Turkish garrison at Adrianople made a sortie on Sunday, but was repulsed with loss.

ROUMANIAN DEMANDS.

Reuter's correspondent at Bucharest telegraphs that a demonstration held outside the Parliament passed a resolution demanding that the Government defend Rumanian interests south of the Danube.

BULGARIAN LOSSES.

The last class of Bulgarian recruits, mostly lads of seventeen years, have been sent to the front after three weeks' drill.

It is reckoned that the Bulgarian losses have so far amounted to 100,000 men, which represents a serious drain upon the small population of the Kingdom.

EUROPE CALMER.

Europe is calmer to-day (Tuesday) upon positive declarations from Berlin and St. Petersburg that Russia is in no wise falling away from the European Concert nor covertly egging on Servia.

TOWN ABLAZE.

A Constantinople message states that a French cruiser has gone to Dadagatch, where disturbances are reported. The town is ablaze, having been ignited by Bulgarian Committees (?)

CORRESPONDENTS CONTRACT CHOLERA.
Three German correspondents have been brought into Constantinople from the front, suffering from cholera.

THE WAR.

PRINCES MEET.

Reuter's
[Service to the "Telegraph."]
London, November 26.
Reuter's correspondent at Belgrade states that the Greek Crown Prince has visited Uskub as the guest of the Serbian Crown Prince. They drove through the streets together and were given an ovation.

ENGLISH DOCTORS.

Reuter's correspondent at Constantinople reports that three English doctors are working in San Stefano cholera camp.

PE CE DISCUSSIONS.

The discussion by the plenipotentiaries at Chataldja on Monday was chiefly confined to arranging a line of demarcation for the two armies, which were to be drawn up by military representatives on Tuesday. The negotiations will be resumed tomorrow (Wednesday).

DANGER PAST.

Reuter's correspondent at Berlin wires that the reassuring utterances from all sides, especially from Russia, have tranquillised the public, which no longer believes danger to be imminent.

AUSTRIAN CONSUL SAFE.

Reuter's correspondent at Belgrade wires that the missing Austrian Consul Prochaska has arrived safely at Uskub, whereby the rumour from Vienna of his assassination is disproved. The Consul was met at Ehl by an emissary of the Austrian Foreign Office who was sent to discover his whereabouts.

THE CHOLERA DANGER.

A significant telegram from Sofia says it has been resolved to keep cholera from Sofia; therefore no more wounded will be brought thither.

AUSTRIA'S CONDITIONS.

Austria will apparently make the acceptance of her minimum in the Adriatic question the condition of her assent to a conference on any other form of settlement.

BULGARIA'S REASON-ABLENESS.

Reuter's correspondent at Sofia says it is authoritatively stated that Bulgaria is anxious to be moderate in her peace negotiations so as to convince Europe of her reasonableness. To spare Turkey's feelings she might not insist on the withdrawal of the Turks from Chataldja and might allow the Adrianople garrison to march out.

THE SERBIAN ADVANCE.

Reuter's correspondent at Vienna states that the Austrian steamer Wurmbrand while off Durazzo sent a wireless message stating that the Servians were already seven miles from Durazzo, which they had probably reached in the meantime, and that the inhabitants will not resist their entry.

THE CONFERENCE SUGGESTION.

London, November 27.
Reuter's correspondent at Berlin says that official circles at ite that while no Power is hostile to the idea of a conference, there can be no prospect of a conference until the Treaty between Turkey and the Balkan States has been signed and the Powers know on what points they have to confer.

RUSSIAN FEELING.

Later.
A message from St. Petersburg states that the Czar has had an audience with the Austrian Ambassador at Tsarskoe Selo.

Public dissatisfaction is growing at the alleged failure of the Government to uphold Russia's dignity in the Balkans and at the official repression of pro-Balkanite demonstrations.

Societies are being formed for the support of the Balkan States, and a collection in the streets of Moscow on the 25th inst. yielded $20,000 sterling.

BOW BYE-ELECTION.

A CONSERVATIVE GAIN.

Reuter's
[Service to the "Telegraph."]
London, November 26.
The bye-election at Bow, caused by the resignation of Mr. George Lansbury (Lab.) in order to fight the seat as a Suffragist, resulted as follows:—
Mr. Blair (C.) 4,042.
Mr. Lansbury (Suff.) 3,291.

Conservative maj. 751.

The polling was animated, despite the unique nature of the contest.

The Suffragettes throughout worked strenuously for Mr. Lansbury, but the issue was not confined to the suffrage question, as Mr. Lansbury vehemently opposed the Insurance Bill, and his attitude caused splits in the local Liberal and Labour parties. Mr. Blair is an orthodox Conservative.

[At the last General Election Mr. Lansbury polled 5,315 votes and Mr. G. S. Amesey (C.) 3,452.]

HOME RULE.

PROGRESS OF BILL.

London, November 27.
The House of Commons, in committee, has passed by 300 votes to 194, Clause 15 of the Home Rule Bill, (which defines the taxation powers of the Irish Parliament) with an important Government amendment suppressing the proposal power to decrease the Customs duties, thus preventing drawbacks and rebates. This amendment was incorporated in deference to the wishes of a body of Liberals who feared financial complications.

"GUILLOTINE" PROTEST.

The Opposition vigorously protested against the wholesale use of the "guillotine" whereby the House only began the discussion of Clause 15 yesterday and Clauses 15 to 21, dealing with important financial matters, have to be passed through committee by 10.30 to-night.

THE U. S. SENATE.

TIE IN PARTY STRENGTH.

London, November 26.
The death is announced of Senator Isidor Rayner, a Democratic member of the U. S. Senate. Senator Rayner's demise raises the question of the Democratic control of the Senate, as there will now be a tie, owing to a Republican replacing him, though the "Democrat" Vice-President will have the casting vote on divisions being taken.

BIG GOLD ROBBERY.

A BAFFLING MYSTERY.

London, November 26.
Ten cases of gold, each containing $5,000 sterling, were recently consigned from the Bank of England for Alexandria, via Bremen and Trieste.

When the cases were opened at Alexandria, two were found to be full of lead instead of gold. The seals of the cases were unbroken.

THE CINEMA PANIC.

REVISED CASUALTY LIST.

London, November 26.
Fifty-two people were killed and 100 injured in the cinematograph theatre panic at Bilbao, Spain.

[Service to the "Telegraph."]
London, November 26.
"Gyp the Blood," "Whitey Lewis," "Lefty Louis" and "Dago Frank," who were convicted of the murder of the gambler Rosenthal, have been sentenced to be electrocuted, in January.

THE CHINESE REPUBLIC.

NEGOTIATIONS WITH RUSSIA

[From Chinese Sources.]

Peking, November 26.

The Central Government has been negotiating with the Russian Minister at Peking on the Mongolian question for some days, but so far the negotiations have been fruitless.

WAR.

The Government has decided on an expedition against the Mongolians, and to appoint General Fung Kwok-cheung as Commander-in-Chief of the expeditionary forces. "Shat Po."

SHUM WANTED.

Shanghai, November 26.

The Niao Charitable Institution in Canton have telegraphed to President Yuan begging the despatch of Shum Chun-hsun (ex-Viceroy) to Kwangtung as Civil Administrator. However the Cantonese officials in Peking are strongly opposing the suggestion.

YUAN'S STANDPOINT.

The Russian Minister at Peking has called on President Yuan, and asked whether China intends declaring hostilities against Russia. In reply, the President said that China and Russia have never infringed Treaty stipulations, and he failed to understand how the question of war and peace came up at all. As regards the expedition to Fulin, it was an internal affair, though it also concerned the suzerainty of China. For these reasons alone, China is forced to open negotiations with Russia. "Shat Po."

A REJECTED SUGGESTION.
Shanghai, November 26.

The Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs has telegraphed to Lu Ching-cheung, Minister of Foreign Affairs, that there are misunderstandings regarding the Treaty concluded between Russia and Mongolia, and that China should despatch a special Envoy to Russia to conduct negotiations with the Russian Government. In reply, Lu considers this step unnecessary and says that the answer China expects from Russia is whether the Treaty will be cancelled or otherwise. This will solve the question, and Lu hopes that the relationship between China and Russia will not be broken.

RUSSIA'S RESOLVE.

The Russian authorities have posted proclamations in Outer Mongolia that the place will be under the protection of the Russian authorities, and that no troops of other nations will be allowed near the territories.

ANOTHER SUGGESTION.
Vice-President Li has telegraphed to President Yuan suggesting that Lu Ching-cheung should be given sole power to settle all the diplomatic differences with Russia.

GOVERNOR RESIGNS.

Li Lit-kwan, Governor General of Kiangsi, has sent in his resignation, and recommended Yu Hsi-chung as his successor. "Si Kai Kung Yik Po."

forced to obey the orders of his company, insisted on the payment of the fare in Hongkong money.

The car was one which left the Hongkong Hotel corner at about 8 o'clock and when near the Cricket Ground, four well-dressed men boarded the car, the other occupant being a representative of the "Hongkong Telegraph." When the ticket collector came for fares, three paid in the usual manner, but the fourth, a fair-haired man, produced a coin which the conductor refused to accept. It was tendered two or three times, but the collector would have none of it, and repeated requests failing to effect the production of a suitable coin, a ticket inspector was called who supported the action of the conductor.

Still the gentleman refused to change his tender, and met requests that he should write his name in a proffered book, with silence. It was suggested that he should do so by his friends—and so give more trouble to the Company in collecting the fare—but he merely met every request with the statement "It's all right."

As the car was passing the Naval Canteen, Inspector McHardy and Sergeant Ogg, were met, and the ticket inspector explained matters to the former. He informed the passenger that he would have to pay the fare, and, without further comment, save to say it was all right, the man produced an acceptable coin.

After that the journey was comparatively uneventful but it is worthy of note, that the four men left the car, at Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co's. mess.

NON-PARTY HOME RULE.

Suggested Conference For Compromise.

A statement was officially issued last month day in Dublin giving the views formulated at a recent private meeting in that city and endorsed by a number of noble men and gentlemen—county lieutenants and deputy lieutenants—who are in favour of a settlement of the Irish Home Rule question by friendly compromise.

The Earl of Dunraven was in the chair.

The settlement of the question of Irish Government should, the signatories state, be lifted above party politics in the interests of the Empire. They suggest as a means to this end a conference representative of all views and interests concerned. Three main points on which they consider the Home Rule Bill unattractive are stated, and agreement on these would "go far to meet and remove legitimate fears and objections."

1. The finance is faulty.
2. The methods of election to the Parliament preclude minorities from direct representation.
3. Any such Bill should have provisions for completion of land purchase by the Imperial Parliament in the spirit of the Act of 1903.

The signatories, most of whom are Protestants, dissociate themselves from the fears expressed in Ulster of religious intolerance or civil oppression.

THE CANADIAN DEBATE.

Reuter's
[Service to the "Telegraph."]
London, November 26.
Reuter's correspondent at Ottawa wires that in the Canadian House of Commons, during the debate on the Address, Sir Wilfred Laurier said the language of the speech from the Throne delivered by H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught contradicted the reassuring speeches of Mr. Asquith, Mr. Churchill, and Mr. Borden. The fact that the Empire had nothing to fear from anybody was no reason for neglecting precautions.

"IRISH REPUBLIC."

LORD AND LADY ABERDEEN MOBBED.

London, November 26.
At a concert in Dublin a number of men mobbed Lord and Lady Aberdeen, the Viceroy and Vicereine, cheering "the Irish Republic." They were removed by the police.

CN MAKES THE HOUSE REALLY CLEAN CN

You housewives who scrub and scour with soap and water—do you realize that you are cleaning only the surface?

Soap is only a "top cleanser." It doesn't purify; it doesn't thoroughly remove the dirt. It stinks into cracks and there simply gathers more dirt and makes places for disease germs to gather. If you want to really clean house, if you want to keep out the causes of sickness, use CN.

CN is a wonderful cleanser. Put a little of it in a pail of water and you have something that will make your floor, sink, ice boxes and garbage cans not only look clean but actually be clean—something that will drive out odors, purify the atmosphere and protect your health. Wherever grease, impurities or germs are to be found you need CN.

It is so powerful, so quick in its action that it saves you work and it gives the results you want.

CN is not only a perfect cleanser, it is a disinfectant and antiseptic. Although it is non-poisonous, it is five times as strong as carbolic acid. No kind of disease germ can resist
it.

It is not a substitute for cleanliness, but an aid to it. Use it from cellar to garret. Seek out the places where you can find mould and smells and putrid water. Use CN there and you will have a clean, healthy home. Settle the matter of cleanliness to-day. Tell your druggist that you want CN. Use it the next time you clean.

Be sure to get "The Yellow Package with the Gable Top."

A Significant Naval Disposition.

England, in concentrating the greater part of her fleet in the North Sea, possesses there unquestionably superior strength to Germany at the present moment, and similarly France is for the time being stronger in the Mediterranean than the Austro-Italian fleet. These circumstances have a direct bearing upon the situation created by the international dispute arising out of the Balkan war. If the triple entente can be persuaded to act in concert in insistence upon a fair deal to the victorious Balkanites at the close of hostilities, it is difficult to see how an Austro-Germano-Italian combination can successfully resist their demands. The Balkan confederacy, if it endures, can alone put into the field a well-trained war-seasoned army of five hundred thousand bayonets, and this formidable force with the Russian legions at its back and the Anglo-French navies to harry the enemy on the ocean, ought to be able to keep both Austria and Italy fairly busy. But it is to be hoped that international jealousies will not prevent a pacific solution of the difficult problems presented.

The British Archives.

The Royal Commission on British Public Records has set an example of activity and business-like method which might be usefully followed by some other bodies of official investigators. Within two years of its appointment, it has found time to take a large amount of valuable evidence, it has examined the enormous mass of material placed before it in Chancery-lane and various public offices, it has travelled abroad and inspected archives in Holland, Belgium and France, and it has compiled an exhaustive report which has now issued as a Blue-book. The report gives an interesting account of our past treatment of official and historical documents. In this, as in many other matters, our ancestors muddled through; and the muddle grew more tangled as the years rolled on, until by the early part of the last century it had become a scandal.

A Hongkong Appointment.

It had been generally expected in the Colony that the post would have been offered to Dr. Bell, who succeeded Dr. Atkinson in 1896 as Superintendent of the Government Civil Hospital, and as Medical Officer to the Small Pox Hospital and to the Government Lunatic Asylum. Moreover, Dr. Bell has filled the acting appointment of Principal Civil Medical Officer for four periods, during the absence of Dr. Atkinson from the Colony—in all a period of about three years—and this fact alone gave him strong claims to the substantive post on Dr. Atkinson's retirement. We understand that Dr. Francis Clark, the Medical Officer of Health, who has been in the service of the Colony since 1895, was also a candidate for the promotion. The Colonial Office, with whom the appointment rests, has appointed a gentleman from one of the African Colonies who is junior, we understand, to both of the local candidates. What the reason for this is has not transpired, and the only one we have heard suggested is a somewhat paltry financial one. Dr. Bell's promotion, it seems, would involve, in view of the length of his service, higher remuneration than the Colony would need to pay a new man transferred on promotion from another Colony; so that by getting in an outsider, the Colony saves on salary, and consequently, at a later date, on the pension attaching to the post. For our part, we cannot believe it of the Colonial Office in London any more than of the Hongkong Government that they would be deliberately guilty of such abominably shabby treatment towards a well-trying and conscientious officer. We are certain there would be found in the Colony no shadow of sympathy or support for an action determined by so mean a motive.

The retirement of two General Officers of the Indian Army was gazetted last month—Lieut. Gen. Sir Alfred Martin and Major-Gen. W. Du G. Gray. Sir Alfred Martin, who will not be 60 until next March, was educated at Harrow and obtained his commission from the 2nd Middlesex in 1854. He served for two years' service with the 34th Foot he joined the Bengal Staff Corps, and served for some time with the 5th Gurkha Rifles of the 1st Battalion of which he commanded. He has filled many important Staff appointments, including those of Assistant Military Secretary for India, Affairs at the War Office, Commander of the Bareilly Brigade, Adjutant-General in India, and commander of the Rawul Pind division, vacating this last-named post in May. His campaigns include the Afghan war 1878-80 and nine expeditions on the North-West Frontier, during which he was six times mentioned in despatches. Gen. Martin was given the K.C.B. two years ago as Major-Gen. W. Du G. Gray was 56 last month, and he served for two years in the 4th Foot before joining the Madras Staff Corps in 1877. For some time he was with the 4th Punjab Infantry, and the subsequent command of the 55th Coy. of Rifles. Gen. Gray has done much service on the Staff in India, and has commanded in succession the Bannu, Mooltan, Jhelum, a Kohat Brigades, while he was for four years Inspector-General of Volunteers. He vacated this last post in April. His war service includes the Afghan war, 1878-80, and seven expeditions on the North-West Frontier. Eight years ago he was decorated with the C.B.

THE OUTLOOK.

A remarkable article by Dr. E. J. Dillon appears in the "Nineteenth Century and After," on the "Disembodiment of China," and because it is the most complete and careful statement we have seen alike of the present position, and the causes which led to it, and of the prospects for the future, it deserves more than mere passing notice. Its impartiality is beyond dispute, and Dr. Dillon's fitness to weigh up the situation may be judged by what he says concerning the Dependencies. "What will happen," he writes, "is that those territories will be formally recognised as more independent than Crete." And, remembering what has happened in Mongolia, we may take it that he is right. As regards Tibet, he says, "Great Britain will protect—nay, is effectively protecting—Tibet." But only within the limits of the treaty of 1906. Britain, in fact, seems anxious to avoid increasing her responsibilities in Tibet unless she is actually forced to do so. Whether she is so compelled will depend almost entirely upon whether China herself gives Tibet reasonable ground for making an appeal to Britain for help. In any event, the difference in attitude of Britain and Russia can hardly escape notice by the Chinese Government. The one is carefully inactive; the other is cautiously aggressive.

Exceedingly admirable is Dr. Dillon's way of summing up Dr. Morrison's attitude towards the Republic as indicated in his famous letter to the "Times" of August 23. He says, "as Boyle Roche would have put it, his way of looking at the formidable dangers that beset the Republic is to shut his eyes to them." He points out that, despite the faults of the Empire, "from the Imperial Dynasty there went forth an indefinable but real force which comported the nationalities and presented a sort of bulwark to the onsets of greedy Powers." Very fairly, too, he observes that the revolution has not really been a national movement such as transformed France 120 years ago. The peasant class were little interested, if at all, and the merchant class only slightly. At present, therefore, there is no real central force such as the Throne supplied but a "league of adventurers, to whom a few men of integrity and patriotism lend the glamour of their names."

This is all very true, of course, but there can be little doubt that "men of integrity and patriotism" will weld together the various parties and save China if she is left to work out her own salvation. Disbanded soldiers, pirates, and the like will give trouble, to be sure; but these things are of the moment and will pass. Mistakes will be made by China's leaders, but time will bring experience. Only the other day we pointed out that the cutting of queues, orders that the subjects of the Republic should wear this and should not wear that, formed an interference with the liberty of the subject and were not acts proper to a Republic which set out to free the people. What the leaders of the Republic have to do is deliberately, to set out to secure the respect and trust alike of its own people and of the great Powers. That object once attained, the rest will follow naturally, and China will yet take its place among the Powers.

The German Mail.

The German mail despatched from Hongkong on October 30th was delivered in London yesterday.

Siamese Prince Leaves.

1,200 Rounds.

Before Mr. Hazelland, at the Police Court, this morning, a man was fined $250, or in default three months, for being in unlawful possession of 1,200 rounds of revolver ammunition, at Shaokwan.

Arms and Ammunition.

A man charged before Mr. Hazelland, at the Police Court, this morning, with being in unlawful possession of arms and ammunition, was fined $100, or in default six weeks. Inspector Kerton proved the charge.

Wounds on the Head.

A Chinese, aged 22, residing in Nullah Lane, Wanchai has been removed to the hospital suffering from wounds on the head and throat alleged to have been inflicted by another man during a quarrel over money matters.

Ladies Recreation Club.

Owing to the departure from the Colony of Miss Wilkinson, the duties of Hon. Secretary of the Ladies Recreation Club have been undertaken by Mrs. F. H. Armstrong, 18 Peak, to whom all communications must in future be addressed.

A Fight.

A good deal of excitement among the Chinese was caused this morning when a lively fight occurred near Des Vaux Road, in Lyun Street. Two Chinese came to blows, and were vociferously cheered on by the female members of their families. A Sikh policeman cuffed both combatants soundly, and the crowd melted away as quickly as it had appeared.

Harbour Offence.

At the Marine Magistrate's Court, before Commander Basil Taylor, R. N., Leung Yau and Po To, masters of licensed cargo boats, were charged with unlawfully failing to carry the regulation lights while under weigh in Victoria Harbour on November 26th at 9.15 p.m. The charge against the first defendant was withdrawn while the second was fined $5.

Teal Comedy Company.

The Raymond Teal musical comedy company opens a short season at the Victoria Theatre to-night, and a full house seems assured. No expense, we understand, has been spared to make the production excellent in every way. The recent appearance of the Company here renders it unnecessary to do more than refer to the tinsel choruses, the witty dialogues and the funny situations, which mark these shows.

Fall of Rain.

The first fall of rain experienced in the Colony for some considerable time is recorded for the 24 hours ending at 10 a.m. to-day, but the extent of the fall—0.03 inch—is so small as to be almost no fall at all. Barring the 15th inst., when 0.01 inch was recorded, this is the first fall for the month. It is interesting also to note that rainfall was only recorded on two days in October also—0.10 inch on the 7th and 0.005 inch on the 28th.

MRS. TATT'S SISTER.

Arrived in the Colony Yesterday.

Miss Herron, sister-in-law to Mr. William H. Tatt, President of the United States, arrived in the Colony yesterday, and in the evening went on to Canton. She is a member of a party of three which includes the Misses Harrison and Ramsay; all of them come from Cincinnati, and are members of prominent Ohio families.

After visiting Peking, they spent a few days in Shanghai, where they were entertained during their stay by American residents.

Their trip, which has included Japan, takes them through Indo-China and India and by the time they reach home again they will have been round the world.

DRASTIC PUNISHMENT WANTED.

[To the Editor of the "Hongkong Telegraph."]

Sir,—I happened to be an eye-witness of the riotous scene in front of the Central Market shortly after eight o'clock last evening. The undisciplined sight of European Constables being stoned by a mob of ruffians and urchins, who have obeyed the behest of some secret guild or other, that chose to set the law of the Colony in defiance, leads to a pertinent inquiry being addressed through the medium of your columns for the information of law-abiding citizens in Hongkong.

The frequency of a prompt resort to systematised "boycott" when any regulation is put into operation distasteful to certain sections of the Chinese, prompts the question whether Hongkong is governed for or by the Chinese? Apparently, recent events point to the answer being found in the second part of the inquiry. It is exceeding the bounds of tolerance for Europeans citizens to have to endure the humiliation of finding that the legal currency of the Colony, bearing the late King's effigy, should give way to an alien and debased coin, just because an alien section of the community finds it paying to foist the circulation of the latter on us in order to swell the revenue of a depleted provincial exchequer in Canton and to contribute to the profit of those traders whose business it is to benefit by a multiplicity of units representing the so-called "standard" currency of China.

The cool behaviour of the European constables who were pelted with stones by a jeering, howling and hooting crowd of thousands of Cantonese hirelings preventing the tramcars from being boarded by passengers, is truly deserving of admiration. P. C. 50 Ler doing duty near the Market, was stoned while driving back with bare hands a mob that rant the air with their fiendish howls. Detective Knight was the target for another missile, and it is believed that P. C. Spear was the third man to have been aimed at by the ruffians. It was not until extra police was called out to patrol the tram route and a number of the select "plain clothes" officers dispersed themselves among the crowd, that the latter began to melt away, quite an hour after the first outbreak of the riotous disturbance. Yet through it all our gallant guardians of the peace were as cool as the proverbial cucumber.

It must be extremely galling to the Police officers that they are not armed with more executive powers under what were certainly trying and exasperating circumstances. On the occasion of the celebration of the Fall of Peking, the republican gang commanded the tram cars, as it will be recalled, just because it pleased them to be "mafficking" and the authorities winked at what was considered a pardonable exuberance of joy. But there was no such extenuating circumstance last night. The disgraceful exhibition of the prevalence of mob law, when after 8 p.m., the tram cars were compelled to travel backwards and forwards without a single Chinese passenger, should call for most drastic punishment. Simple magisterial warnings hardly suffice to bring the headmen of the guild to a sense of their duty to the majesty of the King's laws in Hongkong.

The infliction of fines upon street coolies, who are but the tools of the responsible individuals whose inclinations set at naught the Colony's laws, will ever fail as a deterrent unless and until the most drastic punishments are visited upon the wirepullers whose puppeteers were at play in the scenes enacted in the streets of Hongkong last night. It is about time the Chinese rabble are made to understand that this British Colony is governed from Mountain Lodge and not by the gentry of Canton. I, for one, would advocate that now is the moment for the Governor-in-Council to proscribe the entry of the alien provincial coins into the Colony under penalty of forfeiture.

of all such foreign tokens when found in course of being surreptitiously imported into the Island and its dependencies. If the Government were to take this firm stand, once the lower strata of the Chinese society have sought to show clearly the attitude of their higher-placed brethren towards the legislative enactments of the Colony, it will have the support of all British and foreign residents on the Island, who would find believe that the Government can assert its power and resourcefulness in presence of an emergency.

Yours faithfully,
Law-Abiding Citizen.

YACHTING.

Royal Hongkong Yacht Club's
First Cruiser Race.

The first of a series of five cruiser races took place on Saturday. The course was from a line between the flagstaff of the Yacht Club and the chimney of the Kowloon Dock pump house, round the Island of Hongkong, leaving it to starboard and finishing before 9 p.m. by crossing the starting line from west to east. The starters and handicaps were:—Dalveen, schooner, Mr. N. J. Stabb, 2 minutes; Dorothy, Chinese rig, Messrs. Denison and Cunningham, 36 minutes; Marion, Chinese rig, Col. Lean 38 minutes. A start was made at 10 a.m. with a steady but light east wind. The Oenone and Miranda crossed the line near the club, Dorothy and Marion near the Docks, and the Dalveen about the middle. As the wind was about at right angles to the line there was little advantage either end.

The tide being on the ebb, the yachts made good time to the Lyemun Pass all getting through by about 11.30. The wind was very light from the Pass to Cape Collinson where the order was Oenone, Marion, Dorothy, Miranda and Dalveen. Sheets were let out after passing the Cape and the wind increasing, a good run was made to D'Aguiar.

The Miranda, sailing very fast in the rough water, soon passed Dorothy and Marion. Cape D'Aguiar was rounded by Oenone at 12.30, followed at about 12.38 by Miranda, with Marion about 12.39, Dorothy 12.42, and Dalveen 12.44. Off Kowloon Point little progress could be made against the strong flood tide and it took considerably longer to sail the last mile and a half of the course than it did to sail from D'Aguiar to Green Island, but eventually the line was crossed by Miranda at about 5.29, Oenone at 5.55 and Dorothy at 6.11. The Marion and Dalveen gave up off Kowloon Point.

The number of points scored are Miranda 6, Dorothy 4, Oenone 3.

DECORATED SHIP.

Flags are flying fore and aft on the a.s. "Haitan" in celebration of the fact that she has made her eight hundredth trip between Hongkong, Swatow, Amoy and Foochow.

Her skipper's name is J. S. Roach, the first officer is Mr. Finchett, and the second officer Mr. Walker.

The "Haitan" is now unloading a general cargo, and steams on Friday on her eight hundred and first voyage.

The "Haitan" is registered from Hongkong, and the third officer says that she is a wonderful sea boat.

SHORT NOTICE.

Claim for Alleged Wrongful Dismissal.

This morning in the Summary Court, before Mr. Justice Gompertz, Tang Woon, a pilot, sued the Tsai Wo s.s. Co., of 38, Connaught Road Victoria, to recover the sum of $47, being damages for alleged wrongful dismissal, without notice from the employ of the defendant Company as pilot of the a.s. Shing Tai.

There was also a rehearing of a case in which Fok Tsim proceeded against the same company, claiming $70, for alleged wrongful dismissal without notice from the position of captain of the same boat.

The rehearing was for the purpose of ascertaining the practice prevalent in the colony, as to notice to be given by steamship companies to their employees.

Mr. Needham, of Messrs Ewans and Harston appeared for the plaintiffs and Mr. W. E. L. Shenton, of Messrs Deacon, Looker and Deacon, for the defence.

The manager of a steamship company, deposed that the custom was for twenty-four hours' notice to be given either way.

Mr. Needham:—When you engage your men do you tell them they are liable to dismissal with twenty-four hours' notice?—Yes.

Why?—Because it is a rule. A rule which you have made for ships belonging to your company?—No: all the ships.

Do you mean say it is a rule for all Chinese ships in the Colony?—Yes.

In answer to further questions he said by reason of over ten years' experience he knew that to give twenty-four hours' notice was the usual custom. All ships, European and Chinese, dismissed employees on twenty-four hours' notice.

Questioned on the point, witness said he had also been in the employ of Messrs Dodwells, who, he said, engaged their Chinese crews under those terms.

The manager of a company owning eleven ships, one of which was on the West River run, said that if he wished to dismiss a man, he would pay him that day's wages and let him go. That was equivalent to one day's notice. If the man wanted to leave he could go immediately. That was their rule. He did not know it was customary to give twenty-four hours' notice. Their custom was to dismiss at once.

In cross-examination witness said his company had had one captain who had sued them. He was a Capt. Austen, and their defence failed because they failed to justify certain allegations they had made.

The Chinese captain of the a.s. Oerf said that the notices should be monthly but they had lately been dismissing men at one day's notice.

His Lordship pointed out that there was no definite evidence of custom and found for the plaintiffs with costs of the rehearing.

A CRY OF THIEF.

This afternoon at the Police Court, before Mr. Hazelland, three men were charged with committing an attempted armed robbery at a house in Yau-mat.

Mr. Otto Kong Sing, Mr. Reader Harris, of Messrs Wilkinson and Grist, and Mr. Davidson, of Messrs Hastings and Hastings, appeared for the prisoners.

The complainant gave evidence to the effect that the men came to the house, and having obtained access, went to his cubicle. One man stayed at the door.

Of the house and the other two entered. One man was armed with a revolver and the other with a knife. The former threatened the complainant with his weapon and told him to make no noise, but the complainant tried to cover him with a blanket.

The second coming to his aid succeeded in cutting complainant slightly on the hand. However, he got up a cry of "Thief" and the two men made off. When he blew on his whistle they ran away but later one was brought back by a constable.

The case was proceeding as we went to press.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A Puzzling Sentence.

One of the sentences awarded in the cases arising out of the tram boycott, which were tried on Monday, has rather puzzled us. A man was fined, for one offence, $25 or, in default, one month's imprisonment and, for a second offence, a month's hard labour. The sentences were ordered to run concurrently! Now, why an alternative should be given in the first sentence beats us. The man cannot pay his $25 and avoid the imprisonment, because he has a month to do anyhow, and the second, by choice, includes the first. Is this an instance of a magisterial slip?

Riding for a Fall?

If the telegrams from Chinese sources are to be regarded as trustworthy, the Mongolian question has now taken a very decided turn. A message from Peking under date of yesterday states that the Government has resolved upon sending an expeditionary force to Mongolia, and arrangements are so far in hand that a Commander-in-Chief has been appointed to lead the troops. If this report is based on fact, then we think China has made a foolish blunder in lying to extreme measures before exhausting other and more reasonable plans. For we know full well that any exhibition of force on the part of China is, by the terms of the much-discussed Treaty, bound to bring Russia to the aid of the Mongolians. And the ultimate consequences of such a development need no discussion; they are too obvious. But it would appear that the new Republic is in haughty mood these days.

A Chance for R.N.R. Men.

Last night's telegram, announcing that the Admiralty is prepared to offer commissions to a number of mercantile officers, will be received with rejoicing in many quarters. While it may not be reasonably denied that our present system of training for naval officers is an excellent one—inasmuch as the boy who enters the Naval College at thirteen is a man, and a very fine man too, at twenty—it is manifestly hard on parents who wish to send a son into the Service and are debarrd by the heavy expense attendant on a cadet's education. Till now, the boy who would be a naval officer, must, at thirteen years of age, pass what is for him a stiff examination, for which expensive coaching has been necessary; and must then enter upon a four years' college course which only a long paternal purse can cover.

The New Regime.

By this new oppression, the sons of men with moderate incomes get the chance for which many of them have been longing. The banking account that may not dream of Osborne can often stretch to one of the merchant training ships, and the young fellow of (say) twenty, who has taken his mate's ticket and joined the Naval Reserve, can now catch up with the wealthier Osborne man. There is, too, in the new idea, a long-needed recognition of the R. N. R. Many of our mercantile officers who have submitted themselves to the necessary Reserve training, will stand comparison with Navy men where smartness, technical knowledge and general education are concerned; yet, in spite of this fact, the Admiralty has not hitherto thought it worth while to give such men an opportunity of serving their country. Thus it is almost surprising that, with so little encouragement or acknowledgement, officers have been found willing to enrol themselves in the R. N. R. at all.

Daffodil or Leek.

The question of daffodil or leek as the Welsh national emblem is worth returning to, if only to recall the story that at Crecy or Poitiers the Welsh archers got mixed up with others and, in passing through a field of daffodils, they stuck the flowers in their caps to distinguish themselves. The daffodil could, of course, easily be used in this way, while the leek would be rather a formidable addition to an archer's headgear. Anyhow, whatever the historical argument may be worth, the daffodil flowers in time for the St. David's Day celebrations and is a presentable flower for a national festival. A leek in a buttonhole is unthinkable.

TRAMWAY BOYCOTT.

A REPETITION OF LAST WINTER'S POLICE ATTACKS.

EUROPEAN CONSTABLE SERIOUSLY INJURED LAST NIGHT.

In connection with the tramways boycott an exciting scene took place last night near Sincere Co's in Des Voeux Road. During the evening a crowd of Chinese gradually collected and, by about nine o'clock there was, according to police estimate, a mob of about a thousand people, all of whom were shouting and who had elected to ride in the cars. The excitement quickly increased and, after a few threats and a good deal of shouting, some of the bystanders began to throw stones at the passengers as they alighted. Only a few officers were on the spot at the time, but these acted promptly and pluckily, with the result that the majority of the would-be rioters speedily took to flight. The holder of the remainder continued to use threatening language and occasionally to throw stones. Worse still, bricks and stones were thrown from some of the neighbouring verandahs. One such missile, coming from a house at the corner of Jubilee Street, struck Police Constable Swan, rendering him insensible. Constable Knight and Crown Sergeant Lee were also hit, but fortunately not injured. Four arrests were made and, on the arrival of a reinforcement of police from the Central Station, complete order was restored. Knots of people were, however, still hanging about and to guard against further trouble, three European Police and seven Sikhs were posted with rifles at the corner of Pottinger Street. Mr. Budeley, the C. S. P., was seen taking a vigilant stroll down the road, but no further noise ensued. It was noticed that all the cars had most of their shutters closed; and that, in spite of the threatened intimidation, scarcely a car passed that had not one or more Chinese inside.

The Police Report.

The official police report states that Lance Sergeant Sier 116, was on duty in Des Voeux Road at eight o'clock on the night of the 26th and reported that large crowds of Chinese had assembled all along the tram route for the purpose of intimidating passengers on the cars. They were shouting and throwing stones. A body of Police under Mr. Wodehouse (Deputy Superintendent of Police) and Chief Inspector Baker was despatched to the scene of the disturbance, which practically continued till about ten o'clock. Four men were arrested in connection with the trouble, and one constable, P.O. Swan, who was standing in the road was struck on the head by a brick thrown from a verandah. He was knocked unconscious for some time. He eventually came round and continued duty. A party of police is patrolling the neighbourhood in pickets.

Two men were charged before Mr. Hazeland, at the Police Court, this morning, in connection with the affair.

At the Court. The first man was charged with throwing stones and the second with behaving in a disorderly manner.

P.O. Wm. Knight (30) said that at 8.30 p.m. on the 26th inst. he was on duty in Des Voeux Road Central, opposite Sincere & Co.'s premises a car travelling from the East to West stopped opposite the aforementioned premises, and several Chinese passengers alighted. Just as the car was starting off again he saw the first defendant throw stones away from the car, to the left of the street at the passengers who had alighted from the car. The defendant referred to stopped down again and picked up more stones. He arrested the man who ran to Wing On Company's shop. As he was entering the shop he dropped three stones. Witness followed him into the shop and there arrested him. Inspector Murison arrested the second man.

Both defendants pleaded not guilty. They had no witnesses though there were plenty of people there at the time.

Threw A Stone. Inspector Murison said he was along with the last witness at the time and place he mentioned. A car was standing near Sincere's about to proceed West. He did not see any passengers come out of the car. The first defendant threw a stone towards some people close by the car. He only saw him throw one stone. At this particular place there were a thousand people, and the road was under repair. The first defendant stooped and picked up more stones. He tried to catch the man but he ran into the Wing On Co. He saw the man arrested there by P. O. Knight.

His Worship:—Why do you state two charges, one of disorderly conduct?—That will be explained as I go on. Witness, continuing, said as he chased the first defendant the second defendant also made for the door—and as P. O. Knight caught the first defendant, the latter hung on to the second. He (witness) caught the second man whilst the first man had hold of him. The first defendant dropped some stones as he entered the shop.

Disorderly Conduct. His Worship:—How about the disorderly conduct; did you see the second defendant throwing stones?—No, the first. The second man is only charged with disorderly conduct; he was shouting and making a noise.

His Worship:—I understand now.

First defendant said he did not throw any stones; he was standing in the shop.

His Worship (To Mr. Wodehouse):—Do you wish to address me?

Mr. P. P. J. Wodehouse (Deputy Superintendent of Police):—We had more or less a repetition last night of what occurred last winter—stone throwing from verandahs. One European constable is very seriously hurt by a brick thrown from a verandah. This is just the same as last winter. I hope your Worship will take a very serious view of these cases, especially as to the first defendant.

His Worship:—I always do. Mr. Wodehouse:—We had to send our pickets out—special police pickets.

Magistrate's Suggestion. His Worship:—Each $50 or in default two months hard labour. Could these convictions be posted up opposite the markets?

Mr. Wodehouse:—Yes your Worship, I think so.

His Worship:—I think they have a useful effect on railway stations and in this case the effect of them would add to the punishment of two months.

Mr. Wodehouse:—It is near Sincere's where the whole cause of the disturbance was.

His Worship:—Well, if you put them opposite Sincere's, as in Shaikwan? Has Shaikwan been quiet since?

Inspector Gourlay:—Yes, your Worship.

His Worship:—I would rather have them put up by the police instead of the Tramway Co., they will have a better effect.

Another Charge.

Another man was charged before Mr. Hazeland, with inciting the crowd to behave in a disorderly manner and to assault the police.

Inspector Murison said that about 8.30 p.m. yesterday, he saw the defendant standing in Des Voeux Road Central near the Harbour Office; he was one of a large crowd. As a car left the stopping place, he saw him clap his hands and shout "ta" (strike) several times. He arrested him.

Defendant said he did not call out "ta".

He was fined $50 or in default two months hard labour for disorderly conduct.

Student Charged. A Chinese student was charged later in the day before Mr.

Hazeland, with throwing stones at the cars, in Des Voeux Road, last night.

His Worship:—What is the evidence in this case? Mr. Wodehouse:—I don't know Your Worship. Inspector Murison has it.

His Worship:—How many witnesses in the case?

Mr. Wodehouse:—Two I think. Mr. Lewis of Messrs. Johnson Stokes and Master defended, and pleaded not guilty.

Indian constable 658, said he had been a constable three years and three months. About 9.25 last night he was on duty in Des Voeux Road in front of Bonham Stand. A tram passed by and defendant threw a stone and ran towards a shop.

His Worship:—How many people were throwing stones? A lot of people were throwing stones during the night but at this particular time only the defendant threw stones.

How far were you away when he threw the stone?—about two paces away.

Ran Towards a Shop.

Then you arrested him?—He ran towards a shop.

You followed him into the shop?—As he was about to enter the shop I arrested him.

By Mr. Lewis:—There was a large crowd at the time and all were excited. They were all throwing stones.

His Worship:—He made a statement that the defendant was the only man throwing at the moment.

Mr. Lewis:—Anyhow, there was a crowd there at the time and the people were excited?—Yes.

And he was only two paces away from you when he threw the stone?—Yes.

And he was inside a doorway of a shop when you arrested him?—He was only going into the shop.

Was he not standing in the doorway eating an orange when you arrested him?—No he was actually running.

Didn't you move the crowd on before this?—Yes. The only man who threw a stone and ran away was the defendant.

A Lot of Shouting.

Inspector Murison said that at 9.30 p.m. yesterday he was standing in Des Voeux Road West opposite Wing Lok Street. A tram car passed by and a large crowd of people stood under the verandah by the side channel of the road. There was a lot of shouting and clapping of hands. He saw the last witness run across the road, and chase some persons into a shop.

His Worship:—Some persons or a person?—I think there was more than one.

Witness, continuing, said he went towards the shop and there he saw a man under arrest. He could not recognise the prisoner. The last witness had the man. He sent the last witness and another Indian constable with the defendant to the station. He could not say defendant was the man who ran into the shop.

Many men ran towards shops and no doubt some ran into other shops. He saw the last witness run across the road.

By Mr. Lewis: The place was crowded all the way along. There were other people in the shop and others were chased into shops.

Mr. Wodehouse explained that a constable who was to have given evidence in the case had, by mistake, been sent on special duty. He had been sent for and would appear shortly.

Mr. Lewis:—The evidence of the Indian constable.

His Worship:—We have not completed the evidence.

Mr. Lewis:—But this differs from that of Inspector Murison. According to the Indian constable's evidence he arrested the defendant before he got into the shop. Inspector Murison said he saw several persons run into the shop and the Indian says only one person ran into it.

His Worship:—I must ask you to call on your witnesses.

Defendant's Evidence. Defendant in the box said he was a scholar and resided at the Fu Kwai To restaurant. His father was the master of that place. He was a pupil at the Sai Ying Pun School. The son of the master of the shop which he was in was at school with him. Last night he was at the night school until nine o'clock. After leaving school, which was in Hollywood Road, he went to the shop of his friend's father. There was a big crowd outside. He (defendant) was eating an orange inside the shop. He did not throw any stones.

By Mr. Wodehouse:—He could not give any reason why he was selected by the constable. The constable was on the other side of the road and people were throwing stones. When the Indian constable made for a man who threw a stone many people ran by the shop; no one entered. The man who threw the stone ran past the door. The constable was far behind the man. As the man ran past, he (defendant) threw down the orange peel, and the constable must have mistaken him for the man.

Saw Defendant Throw A Brick. Indian constable 1078, who said he had been a constable twenty four days said he saw the defendant throw a brick and run away. The other constable chased him. He (witness) was about nine or ten paces away when the defendant threw the brick. The brick did not touch any one. Defendant ran away and the other constable followed him. Witness also took up the chase. Defendant ran towards the verandah over the shop. When witness got up the defendant was seized just as he was going in at the door. Perhaps one foot would be inside and one out. The shop people were under the verandah and defendant was mixing with the crowd. No others ran into the shop.

By Mr. Wodehouse:—The other constable was only a pace away from defendant when the latter reached the side channel.

Witness continuing said he was keeping the crowd back as well.

On the Other Side. By Mr. Lewis:—He was on the other side of the road from the shop. The stone was thrown towards the tram in his direction. There was a big crowd of people on both sides of the road.

When the other constable chased the man, the latter had to go through the crowd to the shop. He had never seen the defendant before last night. He did not devote himself entirely to keeping the crowd back; he saw the defendant throw a stone and he gave chase along with the other constable.

Mr. Lewis:—Can I produce this document as evidence of good character given by the headmaster of the school?

His Worship:—You can always produce evidence of good character.

DAIRY FARM NEWS.

DAIRY FED PORK

Charles Lamb in his dissertation on the PIG, was the first to tell us how the Chinese love their pig—dead and roasted; but it is not for us! We know that pig, and SOME of the things he is fed on—but not all!

Ah; but this is DAIRY FARM PIG, a dainty little fellow, fed on the fat of the land, DAIRY FARM MILK and all the good things in pigdom.

Is there any difference in Pork? Well, for goodness sake, where do you live? Buy it, try it, eat it, then you will KNOW. Cooked to a turn—the Chinese know how—and the "crackling"—UM.

Don't wait for Christmas, you may be dead before that—and so may the pig! October 18, 1912.

LOG BOOK.

Forging Mates' Certificates.

At the assizes at Singapore on the 15th inst., the last of the common jury cases was concluded.
It was the case of Henry van Nieuwen, charged with using forged documents, and evidencing the documents in question being false certificates, purporting to be issued to ships owned by the Government of the Dutch Indies. He was convicted of cheating and sentenced to two and a half years' imprisonment.

The Delhi Salvage.—Final

Accounts.—
The final accounts relating to the salvage of the P. and O.
steamer Delhi, which was wrecked towards the end of last year, show exclusive of specie, a total sum of £22,000 recovered, of which £7,500 has been awarded to the salvors. This gives a net amount of £14,500 due to the underwriters, and, as the latter had not expected to receive more than half this sum, they are very pleased with the way matters have turned out.

Another Steamer to be Registered at Dairen.

The Inui Gomei Kaisha, of Dairen, has applied to the Marine Office, Dairen, for the registration of the s.s. Verona, just purchased by the Company from England.
She was built in 1899 at Hartlepool, and has a gross tonnage of 4,879 tons. The "Manchuria
Daily News" says that the Inui Gomei Kaisha, a shipping firm, has just been incorporated at Dairen. Mr. Funahashi, in charge of the Dairen Branch of the Osaka Iron Works, representing the firm.
The Verona is to undergo a formal examination of her hull and engine at the Innoshima Branch of the said works.

Portuguese Naval Revival.

Reports from Lisbon state that the Portuguese Government is seriously considering projects for a thorough reorganization of the navy and a revival of the shipbuilding industry. In carrying out its plans, the Government will largely follow the example set by Spain, and will invite tenders from foreign shipbuilding firms for the thorough reorganization of the existing naval dockyards and their equipment for warship construction. It is understood that some of the vessels which will constitute the future navy will be built abroad, and already several big shipbuilding firms have submitted tenders.

The late Mr. W. G. Shephard.

The death of Mr. William George Shephard, a well known resident of Gillingham, recalls thathe was formerly the only soldier in the army who possessed the right to navigate a vessel up the Thames without having a pilot on board. The deceased, who was 62 years of age, was a native of Sheerness and a freeman of the Thames. For seven years he was connected with the Royal Engineers as a civilian, and then joined the corps as a military mechanic coxswain for submarine mining service. On leaving the service he held the rank of quartermaster-sergeant. Two years later he became master of the Royal Fleet Auxiliary steamer
Nimble, which is used for the conveyance of liberty men and others to and from the ships lying in the Medway.

Borneo Lighthouses.

There is a strong possibility that the Manila bureau of navigation will send some of its light-house experts to the north coast of Borneo to install seven or eight lighthouses for the Government of British North Borneo. Although the proposition is only a tentative one, if the contract is made, it will mean work amounting in cost to approximately £150, says the "Cubanaews." According to the same paper, not long ago, the government of British North Borneo wrote insular officials requesting them to make a price for the work of building seven or eight lighthouses on the Borneo coast. The insular bureau is well equipped with machinery, personnel and vessels for the work, and the Borneo officials want to make a test to see whether it would pay them to get these lighthouses built by Philippine experts. The proposition is a sequel to the visit of Governor Sir West Ridgway of British North Borneo about a year ago. He made a trip through the islands and was highly impressed by the efficiency of the light-house service which makes navigation in island waters fairly safe.The lighthouse board of the bureau of navigation is drawing up plans and making estimates on the prices of the lights and houses desired. The lenses are to be purchased abroad but the lights and the structures will be made entirely in the bureau's shops by Filipino mechanics.
Speaking of the matter the other day, Director Helm said, "We estimate that where one of these lights abroad would cost in the neighborhood of P8,000, we can turn it out in our own shops for P2,400. There can be no question that the Borneo government will fare better in dealing with us than in going abroad. The only question is whether they care to go the expense of build-ing up-to-date lighthouse." It has long been known to navigators that the local shops could produce lights more cheaply than any other concern in the world.
If the contract is made, one of the vessels of the bureau will be sent to Borneo and entire work of construction will be in charge of the local bureau.

Armed Robberies in Shanghai.

In his report for the month of October, published in the "Municipal Gazette," the Captain-Superintendent of Police of Shanghai draws attention to the practice of carrying firearms which has become so universal amongst the Chinese criminal classes who haunt the outskirts of the Settlement. He also points out that sentences of imprisonment with hard labour have little, if any, terror for the ordinary Chinese robber, and states that he is convinced that corporal punishment is the only deterrent against crimes of violence. Col.
Bruce is of opinion that unless this form of punishment is again placed in the hands of the Mixed Court Assessors and Magistrates, armed robberies in Shanghai will increase in frequency.
